

New E Book to be added to my Site

An updated and revised version of the my original work entitled Tolley's Disclosure of Tax and VAT Avoidance Schemes published in 2004 will become available on this site over the Summer. The revised version will incorporate the Budget 2005 changes to the VAT disclosure regime and of course will contain detailed guidance and commentary on the new SDLT scheme disclosure rules effective 1 July 2005. The original material will be reproduced with the kind permission of LexisNexis Butterworths and can also be found in Simon's Direct Tax Service.
